

Packers Website

Michael – Creative Director

Will – Designer

Overall, the design of the website is good. The only things we talked about changing was giving each of the dates/events/years more space, and then adding more images into the empty space. We also talked about making the website have better responsiveness to different window widths. Aside from those two, it was mostly smaller technical details that needed a little fine tuning and double checking the info.